

Childre will see nothing on violent programming that they would not see on the news. When I say that, I mean that the war the U.S. is currently engaged in is just as violent and harmful to kids but since it is promoted by our president it is OK. I think the FCC is highly hypocritical.